Max Mangones Chosen as Director of Tennis for New Tennis Center at The Doral Golf Resort & Spa, A Marriott Resort

The Doral Golf Resort & Spa, which is working with CDT Management to design and manage its new on property tennis center, announced the hiring of Max Mangones as its Director of Tennis.

Mangones, comes to Doral from the Cliff Drysdale Tennis Center at The Ritz-Carlton, Key Biscayne, where was the assistant tennis director for the past two years, and prior to that he was the manager at the Midtown Tennis Club in Manhattan, NY from 2002-04.

Currently certified at the highest USPTA P1 coaching level, Mangones also has strong credentials from his playing days, which includes two Davis Cup ties for his native country Haiti. The South Florida resident is very familiar with the local tennis scene as he was among the top juniors in the state while playing at Plantation High School where he earned all-state honors. He went on to play at Barry University in Miami Shores, where he help lead the team the NCAA Division II National Championship Match in 1998.

“This is a great opportunity to lead the tennis program at a world-renowned resort,” said Mangones. “I have gained a tremendous amount of experience in how to direct a tennis center for a luxury resort from my years at the Drysdale Tennis Center and I look forward making Doral one of the top tennis resort destinations and delivering strong daily program offerings for our local members.”

“Max brings a tremendous amount of enthusiasm and experience to Doral,” said Darrin Helfrick, Golf General Manager at Doral. “He earned a stellar reputation at Drysdale Tennis for his managing and running of clinics, corporate events, junior programs and ladies league teams which will make him a very valuable asset for our resort guests and members.”

Mangones will oversee the new tennis facility, with 4 hard-tru courts and pro shop, which will be located on the resort property. Prior to the completion of the project, Mangones will handle all tennis offerings for the resort guests at the Doral Park.
